Approval of Minutes

1. Action: The minutes of the meeting of 16 August 1951 (IAC-M-41) were approved.

Breakdown of Cease-Fire
Negotiations in Korea

2. Action: Although it was generally agreed that there were insufficient facts available at this time to justify an opinion on the significance of the Communist statement, it was decided that the IAC representatives should work on an estimate of the probable consequences of the breakdown based on the assumption that it was permanent.

3. Discussion: It was accepted on the basis of available evidence that the alleged bombing of the neutral zone was undoubtedly staged by the Communists. While there was insufficient evidence to determine whether the resultant breakdown could be considered definitive, General Smith noted that positive Communist action in breaking off negotiations was contrary to the usual Russian tactic of putting the onus on the other side. Various possible motives were suggested:

a. that the Soviets might prefer a tenser situation in Korea in order to justify a more belligerent attitude at the San Francisco Conference;

b. that the Soviets might be trying to bring about a session of the UN General Assembly in order to bring pressure on the U. S. position with respect to the 38th Parallel;

c. that in a limited offensive, the Communists might force the UN troops back to the 38th Parallel before resuming truce talks;

d. that the Communists now felt strong enough to resume a general "6th phase."

Proposal for an Estimate
on a Holy War in the Middle East (IAC-D-31)

5. Action: It was decided not to write such an estimate at this time.

Proposal for an Estimate
on the Strategic Importance of the Far East (IAC-D-32)

6. Action: It was agreed to undertake an estimate of the strategic importance of the Far East to the USSR, omitting reference to its importance to the U. S. The estimate was to procede de novo and not to be a revision of ORE 17-49.
